Instructor - Debbie Hook, CPSA

Ohio native and Clinton County resident, Debbie Hook, has been painting for more than 35 years. In addition to painting, she provides instruction for adults in all mediums, and conducts workshops in the art and techniques of colored pencil. She served as an adjunct art instructor for Southern State Community College. Her teaching places emphasis on strong drawing skills, which she believes is the backbone of any work. One of her students recently expressed, "Debbie displays great patience and encouragement in her classes"

Debbie has received numerous awards and honors for her works of art. She has twice been accepted into the International Juried Colored Pencil Society of America exhibition. One of those entries received an Award of Excellence. She has received a number of Best of Shows and high placements in area art exhibitions in Clinton, Highland and Jackson Counties.

Her work has been showcased in numerous solo exhibitions. She was also chosen for an exhibit at Wilmington College, which featured 3 women artists of Clinton County. Debbie's art is part of permanent art collections throughout Ohio, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Indiana, Missouri and Alaska.

Debbie is currently serving on the National Governing Board of the Colored Pencil Society of America. Having served two terms as the president of the Greater Cincinnati Chapter, she was instrumental in bringing the national CPSA convention to the Cincinnati area in 2012. She has served as president of the Brush and Palette Art Guild in Southern Ohio as well as the South Western Ohio Art League. Debbie is the owner/operator of Beehive Framing, a custom framing business located at 36 West Main St. Wilmington, OH.
